Higher Education hub

Professionals in Higher Education make up the single largest membership group of CILIP, whilst our Academic and Research Libraries Special Interest Group is the largest of our 21 Special Interest Groups.

To help you find out why, below is a small flavour of what our HE members enjoy. If you are not yet a member there are plenty of details about the benefits and how joining CILIP will develop your skills and build your career.

"As a library professional working in Higher Education, I would say being a member of my professional association has brought immeasurable benefits"

Liz Jolly, Director of Student and Library Services, Teesside University
